Who reviews my document?

No one. Documents are not reviewed by a human.

Lawyers and legal experts are the ones who first create the templates. Then our computer program automatically builds your document based on the responses you provide in the form.

Our templates cover most typical cases. Have your document reviewed by a lawyer if you think the template may not work for your specific case.

Do I have to answer every question in the form?

No, but we recommend that you do.

The document is created based on your responses. Some questions only fill in blanks in the template. Others add or remove entire paragraphs. That's why we recommend that you answer the questions carefully.
